VOCs of 6% or lower to help support your regulatory compliance efforts

No flammable propellants and doesn't require specialized storage for flammables

Smaller cans still contain more adhesive product - so you waste less

More product per can and up to two times the coverage per can = lower cost of coverage per square foot

Your workers may be safer and more comfortable working with easy-to-use products that are also low-odor

Two separate tips included in the cap to keep adhesive spraying smoothly
